handles, Rincon Bay faucets combine a no-frills sensibility with a futuristic vision characteristic of mid-century design. By injecting a new choice of cross handles into the design mix, it takes the line in a slightly more transitional direction with a classic, yet modern look that is well suited for use in both traditional and contemporary bathrooms.

“The new cross handles for Rincon Bay span two popular trends today—the broad appeal of mid-century modern and a gravitation toward transitional styles,” says Noah Taft, Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing for California Faucets. “Leaning contemporary but with a traditional vibe, our new cross-handle models are a modern take on classic looks.”

The new cross handles are available across the Rincon Bay line, including the 8-inch widespread lavatory faucet, wall-mount vessel faucets with a 6 ½" or 8 ½" spout, Roman tub faucet; tub/shower faucets, and shower handle. Lavatory faucets include a ¼-turn ceramic disc cartridge. Prices begin at $649 for a widespread Rincon Bay faucet with cross handles.
